Post Title: Interior Designer, London

Rodic Davidson has recently launched an Interior Design Studio in collaboration with our Bloomsbury-based Architecture Practice. We are currently recruiting for a talented and highly motivated Interior Designer to work on our high-end residential projects. This is a great opportunity for an ambitious designer to work alongside our Head of Interiors to build and establish the brand. Working within a small team you'll be exposed to all project stages, taking an integral role in the design and the delivery process.

Key day-to-day duties and responsibilities of the Interior Designer:

- Working both independently and within a collaborative design team on multiple projects at all levels of design production.
- Researching and generating concepts appropriate to the client and/or brand.
- Design interiors and developing schemes for residential and commercial projects.
- Producing rendered plans, elevations and perspectives.
- Creating Indesign presentations for client meetings.
- Sourcing furniture, lighting, finishes and designing bespoke items.
- Creating detailed FF&E specifications, GA and joinery drawings packages.
- Liaising with clients, suppliers, consultants and contractors.
- Managing FF&E procurement and project budgets.
- Site meetings, snagging, project installation and on-site creative direction.

Successful candidate will have the following qualifications and experience:

- 3-5 years' experience delivering high-end residential and / or luxury hospitality projects from concept stage through to completion.
- BA (Hons) in Interior Design (or equivalent).
- Passion for Interior Architecture and FF&E, creative ability to design and develop schemes.
- A problem solver, passionate about creative design solutions, with a strong understanding of all aspects of the design process.
- Confident to work autonomously and manage medium-sized projects from start to finish.
- Proficient in AutoCAD, Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop + Indesign), Sketchup and Estimac (or similar).
- Ability to produce detail design drawing packages, including joinery and bespoke furniture.
- Comprehensive knowledge of UK suppliers and BS Standards.
- Free-hand sketching ability and visualisation skills.
- Excellent written, verbal communication and presentation skills.

We are looking for a creative, passionate and self-motivated all-rounder to join our growing design team.

If you think you meet the above requirements and are interested in joining us, please send a CV and work samples in pdf format to: employment@rodicdavidson.co.uk. Please include: "Dezeen <Your Name>" in the subject line. Please note your availability and notice period if applicable. Only successful applicants will be contacted for interview.
